

Basic Functions of System Software - Quiz (JHS Level)

Questions:

1. What is system software?
2. Name two examples of system software.
3. Which type of software helps control computer hardware?
4. State one function of system software.
5. What does an operating system do?
6. Give one example of a utility program.
7. What is the role of device drivers?
8. Mention one way system software manages files.
9. Why is system software important?
10. How does system software help protect your computer?

Answers:

1. Software that manages computer hardware and runs other software.
2. Operating system, device drivers.
3. System software.
4. Manages hardware resources.
5. Provides a platform for other programs to run.
6. Antivirus software.
7. Helps hardware devices work with the computer.
8. Helps in saving, opening, deleting files.
9. It makes it possible for computers to function.
10. By providing login and password security.