Difference Between System and Application Software - Quiz (JHS Level)

Questions:

1. What is system software?

2. What is application software?

3. Give two examples of system software.

4. Give two examples of application software.

5. Which software type manages hardware and system resources?

6. Which software type is used to perform user tasks like typing or browsing?

7. Mention one difference between system software and application software.

8. Does system software work in the background or only when a user runs it?

9. Is Microsoft Word a system software or application software?

10. What software type is usually pre-installed on a computer?

Answers:

1. Software that runs the computer and manages hardware.

2. Software that helps users perform specific tasks.

3. Operating system, antivirus.

4. Microsoft Word, Google Chrome.

5. System software.

6. Application software.

7. System software manages the system; application software performs user tasks.

8. It works in the background.

9. Application software.

10. System software.